SERIOUS AFFAIR.—In a encounter last evening between Robert Smith and Squire Marsh, at a drinking establishment on Jefferson street, between Sixth and Seventh, the latter received three very severe cuts with a bowie knife—one in the right arm, one under the right shoulder blade, and another in the left side above the hip.

Marsh, we learned at a late hour, was in a very precarious condition. The police were in search of Smith, but had not arrested him up to one o'clock this morning.

ARTILLERY.—We are glad to learn that an artillery company is being raised in our city to be attached to the Home Guard of this city. This is very necessary and very important. We heartily commend any such action. To make an efficient corps for the defense of our city it is absolutely necessary to have full regiments, including all of the different arms of the service. There will be a meeting early next week to act upon the matter, of which further notice will be given.

In noticing the bust of Henry Clay yesterday, we said it was the first effort of Mr. A. P. Henry. We were mistaken. It is Mr. H.'s second effort. His first was an Indian girl, now in the possession of Mrs.
Roger Hanson, of Lexington. The talent evinced by Mr. Henry is of the very highest order, and should be cultivated. He should by all means visit Italy.

A number of the actors are going abroad, despairing of any chance at home during the war. Miss Cushman, Joseph Jefferson, Clark, the comedian, the Florences, Sam. Cowell, Miss Sarah Stevens, and Mr. Sothen are announced as having already left for Europe, or as being on the point of departure.

Gov. Morehead said that the South was flooded with gold. The Mechanics' Bank, whose stock was fifty per cent. prem-a year ago, has now $2,570,000 liabilities and only $11,634 in specie to pay it with.
Governor Morehead must be looking through a pair of gold rimmed spectacles.

The twelve twelve pounder brass cannon said to have been spiked at Fort Kearney by Lieutenant Colonel C. H. Tyler, who is now a prisoner in Newport Barracks, have been re-drilled and taken to Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, in good order.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?—The arms belonging to the Citizens Guards, a company of the State Guard, were yesterday removed from the Court-house, their place of depository, to the warehouse of a prominent leader of the secession party in our city.

The Tennesseans won't allow Kentucky whisky to go to their State. They stopped some at Springfield, and sent it back, swearing that their liquor is as good as Kentucky could make. It is not so.
The bad whisky of the Southern Confederacy is one of the causes of the troubles.

It has been figured up that the building of seven gun boats at St. Louis by Captain Eads will employ about four thousand and mechanician, and give support to at least twenty-five thousand persons. The boats will cost the Government $700,000, independent of their armaments.

The Columbus (Ohio) Statesman of Thursday states that Lieutenant Colonel Tyler, the rebel prisoner, passed through that city Wednesday on his way from New York City. He was under escort.

One of the conductors on the Jeffersonville Railroad, on Thursday, while passing through a bridge near Vienna, was struck by a beam, and we learn his life is dispaired of. We did not learn the name of the unfortunate man.

COSTLY.—The Deputy Surveyor of this port, overhauling the freight on the steamer John Galt, yesterday, found among her stores a box of swords, which was ordered to the Custom-house.

There appears to be very little doubt now that the Government has ordered Major General Wool to proceed to Fortress Monro and supersede General Butler in command of that post.

Miss Caddie Barker, a very interesting young lady of Bullitt county, was thrown from a horse yesterday, and, we learn, very seriously injured.

Mr. J. R. McHenry, who was attached to the First Iowa regiment and killed at the battle near Springfield, was from Shelby county, Ky.

The American horse Starke won the Goodwood Cup, and the other American racers had tuff triumphs also.

Notice.—Union men wanting pistols of various sizes, and at the lowest prices, are requested to call here for information.

night for a street drill.

BRIDGE ON FIRE.—CONSIDERABLE ALARM CREATED.—The cars of the Kentucky Central Railroad, says the Cincinnati Enquirer of yesterday, which left at half-past six o'clock yesterday morning, on reaching the bridge about ten miles beyond Falmouth, were compelled to stop in consequence of the bridge having been fired. About five o'clock in the morning it was discovered to be on fire by some of the inhabitants living along the spot, who saw some ends of fence rails so arranged as to induce the belief that it had been set on fire by some maliciously disposed persons. Some five or six feet of the timbers upon which the rails are laid were partially consumed, and but for the timely application of a few buckets of water by those who first discovered the flames the whole fabric would doubtless have been destroyed. The damage done will be repaired so that the cars will resume their trips again to-morrow.

The statement of the Mechanics' Bank, in Georgia, consists of $3,207,355 $5, of which they have, in their vaults, only $11,634 66. There are $100,000 in Confederate bonds; loan to the Confederate States, $75,000; to the State of Georgia, $50,000, and a general collection of straw securities of the like character. What would any business man get of banking done in that way? And yet Georgia is the most prosperous of all the Southern States.

Col. Fletcher Webster was recently ordered to strike his tons and march. The baggage wagons were loaded, when he found the baggage occupied so much room that he took his own trunk from the cart, and ordered all the officers' baggage to be removed to give place to stores and ammunition. "The men must be well fed," he remarked, "no matter what happens." The boys appreciate his care for them.

The New Orleans banks, which are in good condition still, positively refuse to co-operate with the banks in the financial emergency system to sustain the Confederate currency system to sustain the Confederate Government. This looks like what Dogberry calls "flat burglary."

A GOVERNMENT CYPER.—A. B. Talcott, for a number of years the superintendent of the telegraph lines running from Baltimore, has invented a cypher system for the use of the government, which even the author cannot translate without the key.

"Pa," said a lad to his father, "I often read of people poor but honest; why don't they sometimes say rich but honest?"
"They," said the father, "nobody would believe them."

One of the gayest and most attractive equipages in the Bois de Boulogne, near Paris, is driven by an American, who has all his large fortune by selling patent mechanics.

accommodation train passed through this city, with five hundred steel of arms, and ten thousand cartridges.—Cynthiana News.
